

Happy Thanksgiving!

At this time of Thanksgiving, I pause to express my gratitude for the many people that touch my life...

- Thank you to our client's parents for the confidence you place in SPEECHPlus and for entrusting the care of your children to us.
- Thank you to our young clients for their smiling faces and for showing us the joy of communication and learning day after day.
- Thank you to all the professionals I have the pleasure of working side-by-side with every day. Your dedication and expertise continue to amaze me!
- And last, but not least, thank you to my dear family and friends for your love and support. You are always there for me.

May you enjoy a wonderful Thanksgiving.

Many blessing to you and your family,

Renee H. Matlock, MA, CCC-SLP
Speech-Language Pathologist
Executive Director

Let's Make Turkey Cupcakes!

Looking for a fun and tasty project to do with the kids this week?

Their candy corn plumage and shortbread wings guarantee that these irresistible turkey cupcakes will be gobbled up as soon as they land on the dessert table.

HERE'S THE RECIPE

A Bit About Gratitude...

Favorite Turkey Recipe? Check.

Special occasion dishes and gravy boat? Check, check.

Ways to express your gratitude this Thanksgiving?

Don't worry, Huffington Post's Victoria Fine has got you covered with nine ways you can show what you're grateful for this year by giving back to others who may not be faring as well. READ MORE

We have services designed perfectly for preschoolers! Click on the icon above for more information.

Find us on Facebook